Stuart High School, the dear departed. For Stuart High is no more. This is its last year. No more will its hallowed halls echo the ring of bells, sound of voices and laughter, shuffling of feet as students change classes. Only silence. Stuart High has lived a long life. The time has come for a change. Seniors are honored as the last class to graduate from good old Stuart High and Juniors are honored as the first class to graduate from brand new Patrick County High School. But a new school can't and won't make us forget the old. But, like our parents made Stuart High belong to them, we shall make the new school belong to us. Soon it will have memories of its own. So, Farewell, SHS; and Hello PCHS.

MRS. ELLEN HAWKINS Guilford College B.S. Social Studies The School is a living challenge, a changing thing. Courses change — activities multiply — responsibilities grow. As the school adjusts to society's wishes, it improves methods of helping students. This is an on going process which involves the co-operation of everyone — school faculty, principal, vice principal, high school secretary, custodians, cafeteria workers, and the students who walk through the halls of Stuart High School for the last time this year. Out of it comes an understanding of family and friends — knowledge of how hard one must study — evidence of interest about a shrinking world — the desire to read a good book and to overcome the problems we face in the world today.

Faculty Readies Students

TEACHER'S AIDS: Mrs. Lucille Spencer Miss Faye Ayers Mrs. Carol Taylor Students in elementary grades of today have it no different as the youngsters just of the past, as they receive instruction and guidance from men and women who have dedicated their lives to the education of tomorrow's leaders. These devoted teachers not only spend countless hours preparing their courses of instruction, but spend much time in advising and giving help to students in their extra-curricular activities. Their influence is clearly evident in every facet of school life.

On behalf of the last JEB, we would like to say thank you for everyone to the faculty of Stuart Elementary School for work and leadership that has made solid citizens out of many of their expupils.

The change from one school to another is often a difficult transition for many students to make. The adjustments one must make may seem to be too great an obstacle to tackle.

The atmosphere at Stuart, however, is one in which a change can be managed quite easily. Transfer student Steve Gregory (right) finds no difficulty in accepting the routine he finds at Stuart.

The room mothers, who were selected by the members of the Senior Class, aid with many of the activities of the graduating class. This year's room mothers include Mrs. John D. Helms, Mrs. William H. Doss, Mrs. Thomas Alexander, Mrs. Curvie Smith, and Mrs. Raymond Curry.

The mascots, also chosen by the Seniors, participate in Class Day and the other graduation activities. The Class of '70 mascots are Duane Edward Williams and Kimberly Dawn Wimbish.

The teachers who sponsor the Seniors provide the impetus for the graduating class. Mrs. William C. Staples, Mrs. Robert Martin, and Mrs. Wayne Flippin spent many hours making the preparations which were so necessary for graduation.

In Memoriam
William Kenneth Martin
June 4, 1952
September 14, 1969

To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven. A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to reap; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.

Roger Beasley found being editor of the JEB a full time job. Many decisions had to be made regarding type, form, and other basics of producing a yearbook, and trying to meet deadlines became a constant struggle.

The sports section of the 1970 JEB was put together by Andy Anderson and Debbie Belton. Andy, a senior serving his first year on the staff, and Debbie, a junior second year staff member, endeavored to contribute their part to the annual.

Steve Cooke kept the records of annual purchases as Sales Manager, and Edward Hopkins served as both Business Manager and Head Photographer.

Serving as editor of the senior organizations, and features sections of the JEB was a time-consuming task for Billy Doss. Drawing up layouts and identifying pictures were only the beginning of the work to be done.

Yearbook Staff
Works Hard To
"Do Stuart Proud"
As Final Edition
Is Published

Though the 1970 JEB Staff was handicapped by a lack of experience, the dedication of the staff proved them equal to their task. An outsider could never imagine the time and effort that went into the preparation of a yearbook that would "Do Stuart Proud."

The constant standards of excellence that the JEB has always upheld can stand as an example for the future classes of the consolidated high school to follow in preparing their publications.

The final edition of the JEB was put together under the guidance of the yearbook advisors, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Tatum.

High Beta Standards Reflect Development Of SHS Students

With the grade requirements for Beta membership at Stuart the highest in the county, Stuart High School was doubly proud to have the largest high school honor society in the Patrick County School System. Besides aiding in the club's many service projects, the Betas were thrilled to have the opportunity of attending the state Beta Convention.

New Members initiated into the Beta Club were Debra Tatum, Beverly Williams, Sandra Martin, Linda Ayers, Ida Turner, Devon Martin, Janet Hatcher, Gladys Pendleton, Bobby Smith, and Mark Davis.

Stuart Presents Firsts In Forensics' Plays

In preparation for future competition at the consolidated high school, Forensics was introduced at Stuart High School. Students at Stuart took an active interest by proving their dramatic skills.

"Keep Your Halo Straight", a one act comedy, was well presented by the students! Billy Doss, who had the lead role, was commendably backed up by a determined and hard working cast.

Joe Stewart took the lead part in the other play, "Paul Wrecks the Car", also a one act comedy. Joe and the other student actors did their best to make their play superior among high school performances.

Faculty Selects Seniors As 1970

Chosen by the faculty as the Class of 1970's outstanding graduates were eight seniors who contributed much while attending Stuart High School. This selection was made on the basis of the students' scholarship, leadership, and citizenship characteristics.

Scholarship not only included grade averages of the students, but also their honest efforts and contributions to their classes.

phase of the development of leadership. Dedication was a prime requisite for every club's successful ventures.

Citizenship is a great deal more than a superficial trait. A sense of loyalty to one's school, community, friends, and ideals must be upheld in order to be loyal to one's self. Being of service to others is a true measure of success.

Final Miss SHS Chosen From Final Graduating Class

Mrs. Richard D. Hudson directed one of Stuart's finest pageants as "She Walks in Beauty" was presented at Stuart High School. The contest was sponsored by the Stuart Beta Club to earn money to help defray Beta Convention expenses.

With perfection as their goal, the girls practiced to prepare themselves for the evening of competition. Selected by the judges as Miss Stuart High School was a senior, Beverly Rogers. She and each of the other six finalists represented Stuart in the Lions Club sponsored Miss Patrick County Pageant in May.

In the first half of the Wildcat season defeat crushed the cats. Although Stuart lost two key men, Lee Hill and quarterback Mike Curry, the Wildcats came back to win a 36–20 victory over Stoneville. They won their second consecutive victory crushing Hillsville 44–14. Disaster struck the cats in the next game losing to Floyd 42–14. Stuart's last encounter of the season brought another loss to Independence 62–12.

Offensively, Richard Spencer was the workhorse for the Wildcats, carrying the ball 143 times, gaining 1226 yards and totaling 100 points. "Shotgun" also led the Piedmont district in scoring and total yards. The Wildcats team also led the district in passing, were second in rushing, and led in total yards gained. Tommy Rakes, the freshman quarterback, came in midway through the season to combine with Clayton Hamm who led the team and district with 17 receptions for 386 yards. Rakes threw 61 times for 443 yards.

The Stuart Wildcats showed fierce determination and spirit in their first year of Piedmont competition. Handicapped by lack of height and bench strength, the Wildcats after two opening losses came back with a 72–47 victory over Woolwine. After two more losses Hardin Reynolds and Fieldale-Collinsville the Cats scored a 61–53 victory over Blue Ridge. After two more consecutive losses, the Wildcats stomped Blue Ridge 91–68 in a rematch. Once more the Cats lost again to Fieldale-Collinsville and then won 84–82 OT over Floyd.

The Wildcat offense was led by Richard "Shotgun" Spencer who was at the present time the area leading scorer and third highest scorer in the state with an average of 25.7. Terry Martin was the Wildcats playmaker averaging 14 points a game. Bill Cox, Jerome Foddrell, and Lee Hill rounded out the starting lineup. Backing the team were Ronnie Haley, Carl Handy, and Richard Hazelwood.

Linda and Carol proved to be an excellent passing and handling team as Linda started this game as a roving player.

The second string had its chance to shine when every team member participated in the 41--21 triumph over the Meadows of Dan Cardinals.

Teamwork, talent, and desire added up to a victory against Woolwine, placing the team in second place in the district. The defensive powerhouse lay in Janet and Darlene. Offense was led by Mary Alice with an impressive 14 points followed closely by Rebecca with 12 and Carol with 9.

The first five were Johnny Witt, David Anderson, James Hicks, Petie Slate, and Keith Nowlin. The two Subs were Ray Martin and Tommy Rakes. Though the loss of some possible starters in the early part of the season hurt the Wildcats they still came back as a powerful threat.

The Wildcat baseball team scratched and clawed their way to a 10–0 record in 1969, their first undefeated season in years.

The major reason for the 'Cats success on the diamond was the hitting power displayed by the team. Mike Curry slammed the ball at a .515 clipp while Steve Hazlewood, Terry Martin, and Clayton Hamm had .500, .455, and .447 averages respectively. Hamm was also a standout with the glove, committing just one error in 88 chances.

Hazlewood hurled his way to an 8–0 record including a couple of two-hitters and striking out 76 in 48 innings. He also had a microscopic 0.37 ERA.

Stuart rang up such scores in district games as 24-1, 19-0, 18-3, and 27-3 in their last season in 'R'.
